Simple Wire Wrapped Pendant is a beginner class introducing the basic skills required for simple pendant structures without the need for drilled components. Techniques vary depending on the shape of the stones you bring in to wrap. Each time you take this class you will learn new things!!! For simplicity sake, choose a couple stones that are not too big or small. In this class you will learn multiple options for wire wrapping stones of all shapes, make simple bails, and if time permits some simple weaving techniques.

Note: This class can be taken multiple times and by students of varying skill levels. Considering this, it is a great class for mixed skill groups!
